Virtual Santa's workshop- do we think this will be feasible? kids can either view items for sale and write down what they want to buy and it would take place in Nov or it would be all online Crafts in a bag ideas--selling craft bags for 1.00 or providing them? How many would we do?? Would we supply glue and tape?? How many crafts per bag?? Set up day & time to pick up and decorate to have drive thru holiday fair?? We concluded the workshop would not be feasible.
